

Community Coalition For Quality Policing
presents
Creating a Safer City: Community Dialogue Series
“The Benefits of Problem-Oriented Policing & Lessons Learned in Cincinnati, Ohio”

Featured Speakers:

Al Gerhardstein, Attorney & Partner, Gerhardstein & Branch Co., LPA., testified before President Obama’s 21st Century Policing Task Force, principal Author of the Cincinnati Collaborative Agreement between the City of Cincinnati, the police union, and the community

Kathy Harrell, Past President of the Fraternal Order of Police Queen City Lodge #69 and Cincinnati Police Officer

Iris Roley, Project Manager for Black United Front, lead complainant in the lawsuit against Cincinnati, Ohio, led effort to collect the testimonies of over 3,500 African-Americans who said they had been victims of police brutality, racial profiling or misconduct, contributor to Cincinnati Collaborative Agreement, member of Cincinnati’s Chief of Police External Advisory Board.

When: 7 p.m., Tuesday, November 1, 2016
Where: Rubenstein Pavilion, Jewish Home & Care Center
1410 N. Prospect Ave., Milwaukee, WI 53202

CC4QP

Community Coalition for Quality Policing

We can do better together.

RSVP today at www.cc4qp.org/events.html

For more information call 414-421-4380